Hometown Independence Day parties don't get better than in Farmers Branch, set Friday, July 3

FARMERS BRANCH ~ Hometown parties don't get any better than the Annual Farmers Branch Independence Day Celebration, coming Friday, July 3 at the Farmers Branch Historical Park.

Gates open at 6:30 p.m. and admission is free.

There will be a concert from the band, "Inside Out," along with a free KidZone area, historical structure tours, concessionaires selling festival favorites and more.

By popular demand, Uncle Willie's Pie Eating Contest will return. There will be two rounds for adults and one for children, top three places of each round will be awarded prizes. The proceeds from the $10 entry fee will go to a local hero.

The Farmers Branch Historical Park is located at 2540 Farmers Branch Lane, between Denton Drive and Ford Road, and a short walk from the DART Green Line Station. Free parking is available at the Metrosquare Business Park, two blocks south of the Historical Park on Ford Road with a free shuttle to the gate.
