Hard-to-find finds to be found at Craft Fair, Saturday

FARMERS BRANCH | Friday, October 16, 2015 ~ Everyone is invited to get a head start on holiday shopping on Saturday, October 17 as the annual holiday Craft Fair is scheduled to take place at the Farmers Branch Senior Center from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

More than 70 local artisans will be on hand to offer their holiday-themed wares to the crowds in attendance.

The Senior Center's Linda Klark said people who have never been to the Craft Fair can expect wall to wall handmade crafts in a welcoming and friendly atmosphere.

"It's great to see all the talented people and their work," she said. "In addition to crafts and concessions, some of the more unusual items I've seen over the years include welded art, stone jewelry, thunder gourds, a necktie bench and, of course, shoe doos - that is attachable shoe and boot jewelry."

The Farmers Branch Senior Center is located at 14055 Dennis Lane, between Josey Lane and Valwood Parkway. For more information, call 972.919.8740.
