Halloween in the Park to feature scary hedge in Farmers Branch

FARMERS BRANCH | Thursday, October 29, 2015 ~ Festive and fun frights will fill the air on Halloween night, Saturday, October 31 for “Halloween in the Park,” set from 5 until 10 p.m. under at the Farmers Branch Historical Park.

Admission and parking are free. Concessions will be available for purchase.

Once again, people will line up for the experience of the “Haunted Hedge,” opening at 7:30 p.m. and taking brave adventurers deep into the dark recesses of the Historical Park’s scary shrubbery.

The event will also feature “Trick-or-Treat Row,” carnival games, pony rides, a petting zoo, state fair-style food vendors, photo buttons and more.

There will also be volunteers at the Ford Road entrance to accept canned goods for a food drive benefiting Metrocrest Social Services.

The Farmers Branch Historical Park is located at 2540 Farmers Branch Lane, between Denton Drive and Ford Road and a quick five minute walk from the Farmers Branch DART Green Line station. Parking will be available at the MetroSquare Business Park, two blocks south of the Historical Park on Fort Road with a free shuttle to the gate.
