Library FAQs

What about materials I currently have checked out?
All items currently checked out will have their due dates extended until the Library re-opens. No overdue fines will accrue during the Library’s closure. You can check your account through the Library’s online catalog.

Can I return my books?
The Library’s book return is closed until further notice. Please keep your materials until the Library re-opens. All due dates will be extended until the Library re-opens, and no overdue fines accrued after March 13 will be charged to your account. Thank you for your patience during this time.

What about items I have on hold?
Hold periods will also be extended until the library re-opens. You will not lose your place in the holds queue.

What if my account is blocked or expired?
Please contact the Library at 972.247.2511 or library@farmersbranchtx.gov so that staff can help you with any account issues. Currently, all active accounts have been extended to May 8.

How can I read books if the Library is closed?
The Library has eBooks, digital audiobooks, music, movies, and more available through our digital resources 24/7. Check out Hoopla, OverDrive, RB Digital, and more on our eBooks & More page. To learn how to use these resources, check out the Library’s Niche Academy tutorials (Look for the orange “Tutorials” tab on the right edge of our webpage).

How can I apply for a library card?
Please complete the online library card application. Library staff will respond with your account details. Please be sure to include both a phone number and an email address in your application to ensure staff is able to reach you.

If you have any further questions, please leave a message at 972.247.2511 or email us at library@farmersbranchtx.gov. Staff will be responding to inquiries between 10am - 5pm, Monday - Friday.
